

Introducing Tom Mountford: Candidate for the Board of Directors

The Falmouth Historical Society is proud to present Tom Mountford as a candidate for our Board of Directors. Tom has been an invaluable member of our community and one of the longest-serving volunteers at the Society. His deep-rooted commitment to preserving and sharing Falmouth's history makes him a natural choice to help guide our organization into the future.

Tom's extensive knowledge of local history stems not only from his work with the Society but also from his distinguished career as a Falmouth Police Officer, a role he fulfilled with dedication for more than 32 years until his retirement in 2009. During his service, Tom developed a profound understanding of the town, its people, and its history, which he now brings to life through his engaging and informative walking tours. These tours have become a cornerstone of our programming, delighting thousands of visitors over the years.

In addition to his professional and volunteer accomplishments, Tom is a respected figure in the Falmouth community. His passion for preserving the town's rich history, combined with his ability to connect with people, makes him an exceptional candidate for our Board.

We are confident that Tom's expertise, enthusiasm, and dedication will be invaluable assets to the Society's leadership. His candidacy will be formally presented to membership at the annual meeting on January 25th at 10:30am.

Please join us in supporting Tom Mountford's candidacy as we continue our mission to preserve and share the history of Falmouth for generations to come.
